

Mandakini Puri

After completing her undergraduate studies at Lady Shri Ram College in Delhi, Mandakini Puri went to the US and received an MBA from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. She then pursued a career in finance at Merrill Lynch as an investment banker. In 1994, she started a private equity business at Merrill Lynch and initiated, managed and exited the purchase and sale of companies in the US, South America, Europe and Asia. At present, in addition to managing investments in private businesses for her own account, Mandakini sits on a couple of corporate boards and on the graduate board of the Wharton School.
