

AN ETERNAL LOVE

Another nice dawn bringing life to the universe the Sun brightly shone marking the day's early hours

It was a special day especially for the earth, for she was finally going to express her love for the sky,
whom she had loved from her birth

When the moment came,
the earth smiled shyly,
'Dear sky', she said then started stammering slightly

Then she took a deep breath and cleared her voice then looked into the blue eyes of her choice

'I am not that tactful, I don't know how to handle this But now I'll tell you my heart's words, I... I love you more than anyone does!!

You don't ask me why or how, coz, I can give you no reason or proof that you would like to know, but I can tell one thing, that my love for you is so genuine!'

The sky looked at the earth at once his eyes full of swirling thoughts and then the silence broke as he slowly spoke

'My dear earth,
I don't know what to say.. but I would like to remind you something that is indispensable for today!

If you are north then I am south we can never meet and I don't know how today you forgot that

We're both different and have our own duties to follow sorry, I hope you get this', said the sky burying the earth in sorrow

Silence...profound silence... was creeping everywhere like the snow nobody could believe that what they had seen was true

Slowly and slowly the earth came to her senses and looked around to see the shattered pieces of her dreams

Then all of a sudden she closed her eyes and vowed that she would never open them again, whatever happens

Everyone was shocked shocked above everything for everything had happened with haste and they could do nothing

Everything started going wrong the world was out of balance but the earth didn't come out of her impenetrable silence

The sun stopped setting and the moon was there too they stood with the earth for they knew,
her love was true...

Slowly the climate changed everything became dry the earth looked as if she was going to die

Yet she didn't open her eyes and try to save herself oh no! you can't call it obstinacy coz, only love can push someone into that grief!

When everything seemed to end and all had lost their hope there came a queer sign that made everyone's mood lift up

The sky once again spoke to the earth it was the same croaky voice, the only difference was that this time it was full of emotions

'I won't beat around the bush I'll straightly come to matter I had always loved you
And I will love you forever!

But to abide by the rule of nature I had to be ruthless to you but I can hold myself back no more coz, I just love you...'

Said the sky and too a deep breath two big tear drops rolled down and fell on the earth

The earth slowly opened her eyes and smiled summoning all the strength that was left in her now, showcasing her love's depth!

The sky smiled back no, he actually laughed! no one could really differentiate for his mouth was stretched so wide

A colorful rainbow burst out in one part of the sky the sun and the moon set to work with their spirits high

The sky and the earth united but never forgot their duties coz, their love for each other, acts as the remembrall of their works
