

Arushi completed her graduation in Political Science from Lady Shri Ram College and went on to work with Urban Company as an integral part of the business development team. Post this, she pursued her law degree from Amity Law School, Noida, and has since interned with various senior advocates such as Mr. Sidharth Luthra, Mr. H.L Tikku, and law firms focusing on intellectual property. Arushi strongly believes that education is the key to solving grave societal challenges and has worked with an NGO in Delhi for over three years, educating and sensitizing underprivileged children.